

News from Trinity HOPE

This is one of a series of articles which we make available each month to keep our supporters informed about our activities. Trinity HOPE, a not-for-profit charitable organization, raises funds and administers feeding programs that provide a noon meal for the hungry children who attend our schools in Haiti where the Good News of Jesus is shared daily.

Light in Darkness

By Jay Brinkmeyer

“When Jesus spoke again to the people, he said, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.” John 8:12

In perhaps ninety-five percent of the schools in Haiti the children wear uniforms. Probably sixty to seventy percent of the Christian or public schools in Haiti have some kind of a feeding program. It is estimated that sixty-five percent of the people living in Haiti still practice vodou and call upon the devil to do their bidding. We know that some of the children attending schools with a Trinity Hope feeding program come from families with vodou ties in their homes; from her outward appearance the child in this photo could very well be one of those souls.

Haitian parents want very strongly for their children to attend school so they can learn to read and write, learn about science and math, and have a brighter future and more opportunities, even if their children have to hear stories about this teacher called Jesus. We ask you to continue to keep these children who are in Trinity Hope feeding programs in your regular prayers and ask that Triune God may bring True Light to the children and their families. Many are still walking in the darkness and clinging to the broken promises of the devil. Like us, Haiti needs a Savior called Jesus; they have needed Him for centuries. For a quarter a day you can provide a lunch for this girl who lives in Merrotte and plant God’s seed so that this young missionary may bring the Light of this World to her family and neighborhood.
